

THE FRIENDS OF TENBY MUSEUM & ART GALLERY

As Friends of Tenby Museum & Art Gallery (FTM&AG), we hold the contact information that you supply when you become a Friend. From 25 May, the law is changing and we need to let you know how we are using and storing your data.

Our Promise to You

- The Friends exist to support the work of Tenby Museum. We only collect the information that we need towards that end.
- We hold your contact details, which you give us when you become a Friend, in order that we can contact you or send you information that is relevant to our aims of supporting the work of Tenby Museum & Art Gallery. This will include information on subscriptions and the 100 Club, newsletters, our AGM, fundraising activities, events at the Museum.
- The Friends is run by a small team of volunteers, and we make every effort to hold your information securely. Only certain individual members of the committee, who need the information to carry out the activities of the Friends, are able to access your details (e.g. Subscriptions Secretary; Email Secretary).
- We do not share your information with any organisation other than the Tenby Museum. A link can be found to their Data Protection Policy at <http://www.tenbymuseum.org.uk/about/>.
- We will only get in touch in the ways that you wish, and you can ask us to stop whenever you like. If you have any questions, would like to change your preferences, or opt out of communications other than those directly related to your subscription, just contact the FTM&AG c/o Tenby Museum or email: friendsoftenby@btinternet.com.
